Adam Hagen is an associate in the firm's litigation department. Mr. Hagen has represented clients in a wide range of commercial litigation and intellectual property matters, including copyright, trademark, patent, employment, contract, and unfair competition disputes. In 2004, prior to joining Weissmann, Wolff, Mr. Hagen was part of a team that obtained a jury verdict of $560 million in punitive and compensatory damages for an inventor involved in a patent infringement and licensing dispute.

Mr. Hagen received his B.A. from the University of Texas at Austin in 1998 and his J.D. from the Boalt Hall School of Law of the University of California, Berkeley in 2001. While at Boalt Hall, Mr. Hagen was selected to the Moot Court Board, was an Associate Development Editor for the Berkeley Technology Law Journal, and obtained the Boalt Hall Law and Technology Certificate. Mr. Hagen was admitted to the State Bar of California in 2001.
