

THOMAS J. MATTEI, JR.
310.860.3383
tmattei@wwllp.com

Tom Mattei is an associate in Weissmann Wolff's Corporate and Real Estate Department. During his career, Mr. Mattei has practiced corporate and securities law, with a focus on corporate finance and mergers and acquisitions. Mr. Mattei has represented a variety of issuers and underwriters, including Goldman, Sachs & Co., Deutsche Banc, UBS, Bank of America and Credit Suisse First Boston in public and private issuances of debt and equity securities. Mr. Mattei's experience in mergers and acquisitions has included the representation of both public and private entities in domestic and cross-border transactions, including representation on behalf of private equity funds as well as their portfolio companies. In addition, Mr. Mattei has represented start-up companies in the acquisition of debt and equity financing.

Prior to joining Weissmann, Wolff, Mr. Mattei worked as an associate in the Corporate Department at Latham & Watkins LLP in its Los Angeles office. Prior to that time Mr. Mattei worked as a management consultant and worked in a number of positions in politics and government, including two and a half years working in the United States Senate.

Mr. Mattei received his A.B. from Duke University, (studied law at American University Washington College of Law, where he was a member of the American University Law review) and received his J.D. from the University of Virginia School of Law, where he was an editor of the University of Virginia Law Review.