Wayne Kazan is a partner in the firm's entertainment department, where he has practiced since 1998. Mr. Kazan's practice encompasses all aspects of the entertainment industry, including film, television, videogames and other interactive media, music, and publishing.

Mr. Kazan came to Los Angeles after graduating from the University of Colorado, Boulder with the misguided impression that he would have a career as a rapper. When that did not work out, he went to USC and received his J.D. in 1995. Mr. Kazan is actively involved with a number of charities, including Citizens of the World Charter School.
